Official Announcement: Launch of the U.S. Education and Immigration Services Platform Project

[HONG KONG / September 9, 2026] — We are pleased to announce that People Impact Consulting has officially signed a Letter of Intent (LOI) with an angel investor syndicate led by Mr. Thomas Cheng to jointly launch a comprehensive U.S. K-12 education and immigration services platform.

Strategic Partnership: Professional Expertise & Global Resources

Mr. Thomas Cheng serves as the Managing Director of a Hong Kong CPA firm, which is a member firm of a top-20 global international accounting network. He brings extensive expertise in corporate finance, cross-border operations, and professional advisory services.

People Impact Consulting will leverage its 24 years of robust industry experience to lead the infrastructure development and operational execution of the education and immigration services platform.

Key Project Updates

✅ Strong Market Demand: Multiple clients and families have already expressed preliminary interest in the U.S. immigration programs, and advanced discussions are currently underway.

✅ Solid Capital Backing: The project has secured backing from two angel investor syndicates, with several other potential investors actively negotiating participation terms.

✅ Development Timeline: Mr. Charles Wong, Founder and CEO of People Impact Consulting, is scheduled to travel to the United States in Q4 2026 to establish the U.S. headquarters and initiate the setup of the initial education centers.

✅ Long-Term Strategic Layout: Starting with a flagship education center in Utah, the project aims to build a localized U.S. education, franchising, and immigration services platform, laying a solid foundation for future expansion.

Management Outlook

The signing of this LOI marks the official transition of the project into the preparation and execution phase. We look forward to collaborating with more partners, investors, and clients to build a U.S. education and immigration services platform with global impact.
